

Photography Workshops

MEXICO CITY

YoQuiero.info

SIGN-UP ONLINE

PHOTOGRAPHY TRAVEL ADVENTURE

Join us on a journey for an intense photographic experience.

From El Zocalo to Mixquic, Day of the Dead celebrations. These workshops will explore Mexico's street point of view including all its chaos, colors contradictions and human interest, while allowing visual poetry to define itself before our lenses.

Following the path less traveled, we will maneuver the street markets, cantinas and the hidden gems within El Centro. All while celebrating life as observers and image seekers.

We will stroll within the city and create dialogue from our photographs, exploring the visual landscape that will refine each participant's unique photographic voice, ultimately leading to a body of personalized work.

Who's this for?

For AVID PHOTOGRAPHERS

- continue the development of your creative photographic experience

For EDUCATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

- provide your students with the perfect foundation for visual communication

For JOURNALISTS

- sharpen your photography skills and raise the level of your game

For TOURISTS

- a great way to spend the day, and learn a little something about taking interesting pictures

For EVERYONE

- the perfect excuse to get to know a world-class city

